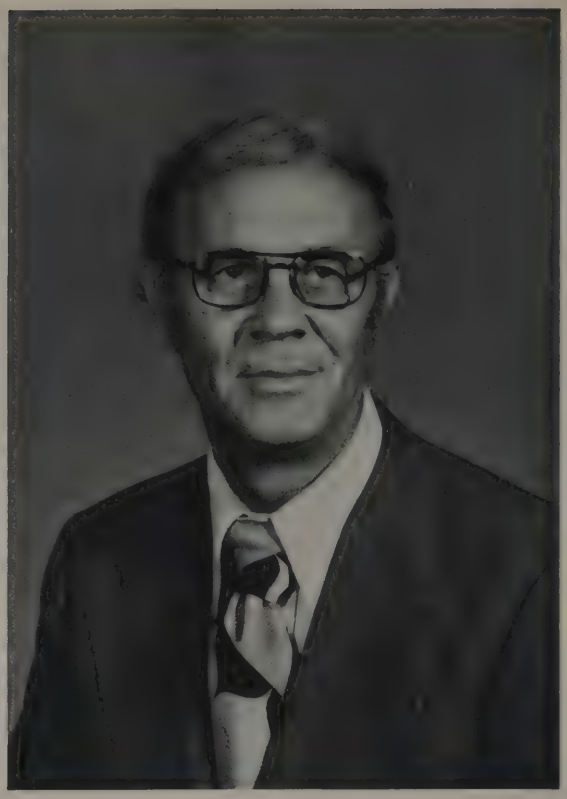
Principal's Message



MR. W. E. CARTER

A.B. Lenoir Rhyne College
M.A. Appalachian State University

What are you going to do with tomorrow? The answer is up to you. Thus far in your life many of your decisions have been made or influenced by your family, your teachers, your administrators, your church and your friends. But the time is fast approaching when you, and you alone, will be responsible for the direction in which you will steer your life. In thinking of tomorrow, I always remember a special passage which has meant much to me during my career in education. This I would like to share with you. I EXPECT to pass through this world but once; any good thing, therefore, that I can do, or any kindness that I can show to any fellow-creature, let me do it now; let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

So I say to you, make today count, for it is the first day of the rest of your life. You cannot re-live yesterday, and you cannot foresee tomorrow; however, you can make today count because what you do today is the foundation of your TOMORROW. Always remember, no one can make you feel inferior but yourself, and the world will stand aside to let you pass if you know where you are going.

In facing tomorrow, I would like to leave with you some rules for ABUNDANT LIVING.

PRAY:	It is the greatest power on earth.
LOVE:	It is a God given privilege.
READ:	It is the fountain of wisdom.
THINK:	It is the source of power.
BE FRIENDLY:	It is the road to happiness.
GIVE:	It is too short a day to be selfish.
PLAY:	It is the secret of perpetual youth.
LAUGH:	It is the music of the soul.
WORK:	It is the price of success.

Mr. Joseph M. Southards

Dedication

Mr. Billy P. Sneed

"If music be the food of love, play on."

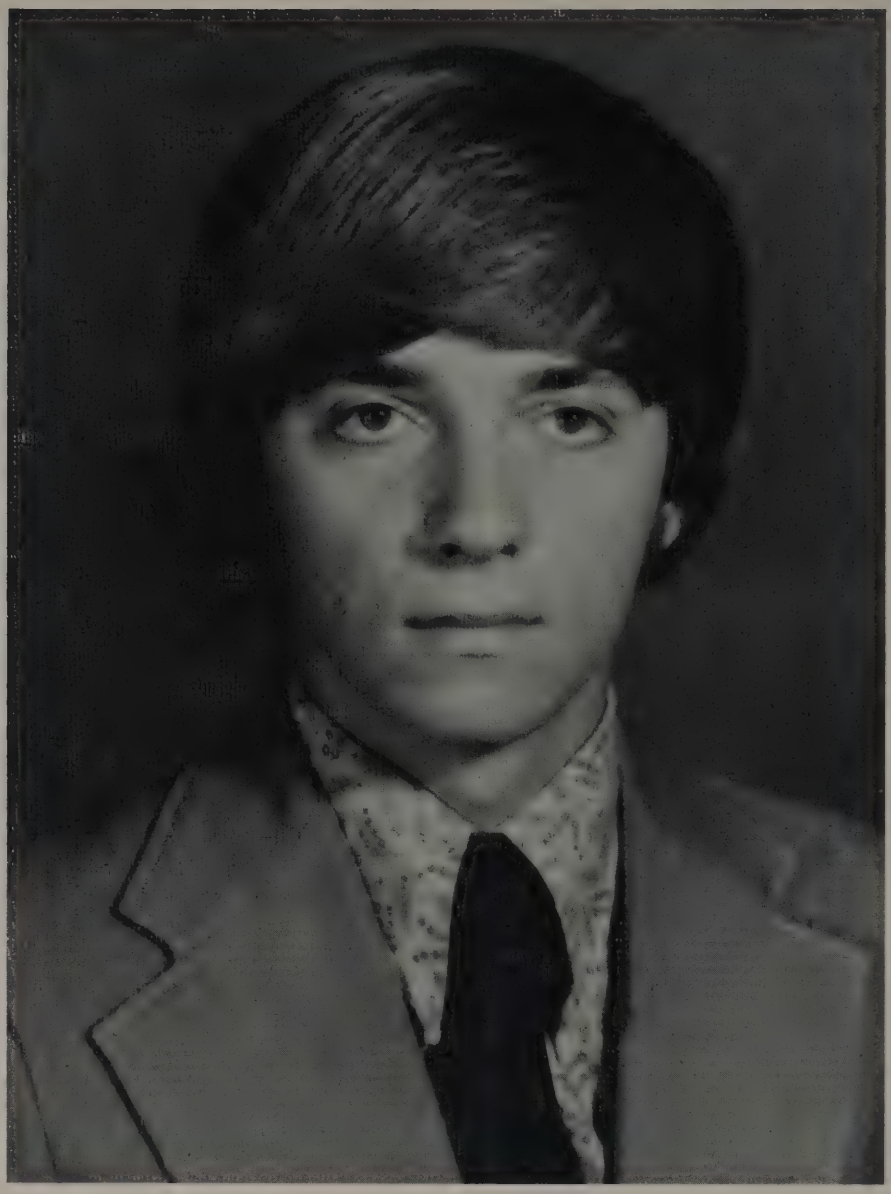
"Her work is her life, for her life is music."

Mrs. Christine G. Sneed

With respect and esteem for their unselfish efforts which do not always show immediate results but which continue to lead us forward, we the 1974 Chenoca Staff wish to express our sincere thanks and deep appreciation to a couple who have contributed so much to the enrichment of our sojourn in Cherryville High School. With their encouragement, students have developed talents and an appreciation for music that would otherwise have remained latent.

In dedicating our annual to you, we want to say "Thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Billy P. Sneed."

In Memoriam



David Scott Pfeifer

April 1, 1956 — April 30, 1973

"You're a child of the universe . . ."

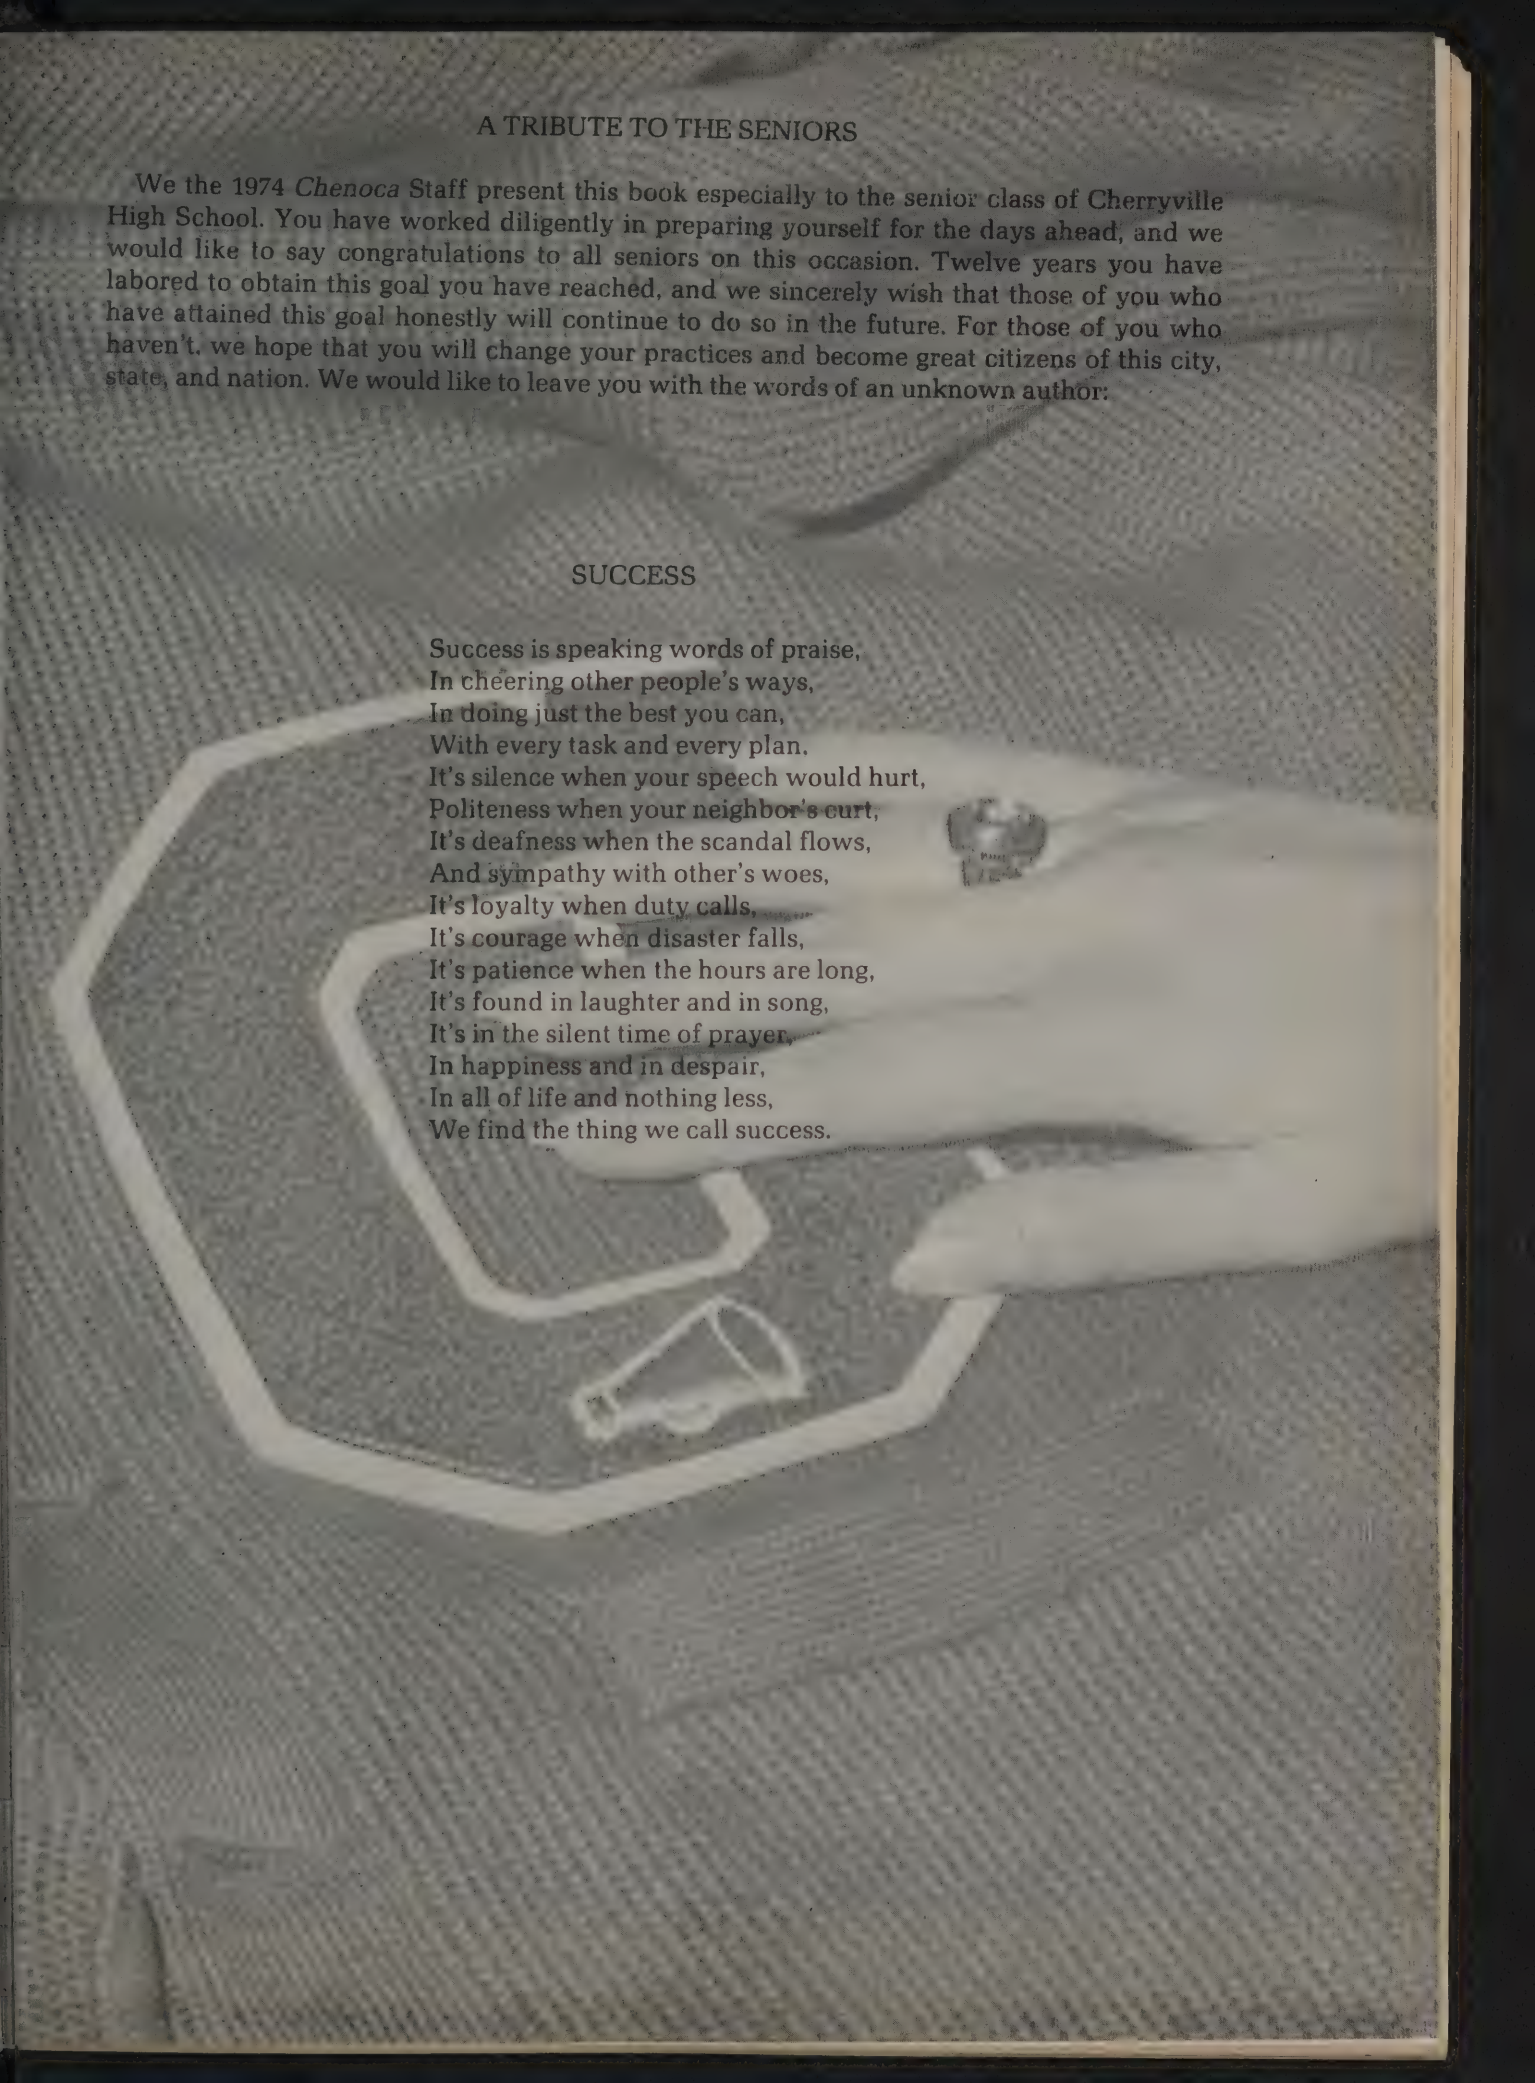
To some, these words are meaningless, but to our former classmate they held a special meaning. The significance of this phrase is known only to Scott.

As we hold the memory of Scott Pfeifer in our hearts and minds, we recall his unforgettable personality which enlightened our eleven years of schooling with him. Scott possessed a brilliant mind with which he was destined to go far in this world. His various talents in music and poetry brought happiness and laughter to each of his friends. Scott lived every day to the fullest extent, trying to grasp the many pleasures life affords.

On a beautiful day in April, David Scott Pfeifer left this earth to join his Father above. Though it may be hard for us to accept the tragic loss of our beloved Scott, we must remember he is now free of the problems we encounter. Thus we hold David Scott Pfeifer in memoriam. Let us strive for the good life which he now enjoys.

A TRIBUTE TO THE SENIORS

We the 1974 Chenoca Staff present this book especially to the senior class of Cherryville High School. You have worked diligently in preparing yourself for the days ahead, and we would like to say congratulations to all seniors on this occasion. Twelve years you have labored to obtain this goal you have reached, and we sincerely wish that those of you who have attained this goal honestly will continue to do so in the future. For those of you who haven't, we hope that you will change your practices and become great citizens of this city, state, and nation. We would like to leave you with the words of an unknown author:



SUCCESS

Success is speaking words of praise,
In cheering other people's ways,
In doing just the best you can,
With every task and every plan.
It's silence when your speech would hurt,
Politeness when your neighbor's curt,
It's deafness when the scandal flows,
And sympathy with other's woes,
It's loyalty when duty calls,
It's courage when disaster falls,
It's patience when the hours are long,
It's found in laughter and in song,
It's in the silent time of prayer,
In happiness and in despair,
In all of life and nothing less,
We find the thing we call success.

Who's Who

Tommy Summer was featured in the Seventh Annual Edition of Who's Who Among American High School Students, 1973-74, the largest student award publication in the nation. Students throughout the country are recognized for their leadership in academics, athletics, activities, or community service. Less than 2% of the junior and senior class students nation-wide are awarded this recognition.

Boy and Girl Staters

This year four students were chosen on the basis of scholarship, character, and interest in civic and extracurricular activities to represent our school at Boys' and Girls' State. Janet Boggs and Jan Froneberger, chosen by the American Legion Auxiliary, spent a week at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Doug Agner and Tommy Summer, chosen by the American Legion Post, stayed at Wake Forest University for a week. The staters studied the basic fundamentals of government and politics.

DAR Citizen

Debbie Eaker was chosen by the faculty to represent Cherryville High School as this year's DAR Citizen. Her selection was based on scholarship, leadership, character, and an interest in U. S. History.

State Health Careers Officer

Carter McKaughan was elected as the state-wide Health Careers Treasurer at the Health Careers Convention in Raleigh. He served for the 1973-74 school year.

Teen Correspondent

Each year a student is selected from the Senior Class to serve as Teen Correspondent. Calvin Hastings was chosen to serve as this year's Teen Correspondent. His duties are to inform others of school activities at Cherryville Senior High through his weekly column in the Shelby Daily Star.

Optimist Youth

Each year a youth appreciation award is presented by the Optimist Club to deserving seniors for their outstanding leadership, scholastic ability and personal integrity. Six students were honored this year. Those honored were Clara Sue Allran, Gloria Hope, Debbie Sellers, Chris Beam, Chuck Dellinger, and Calvin Hastings. Gloria Hope and Calvin Hastings received the Optimist Youth Appreciation Award for 1974.

DOUGLAS FREDERICK AGNER
"Success is to be measured not so much by the position one has reached in life as by the obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed."

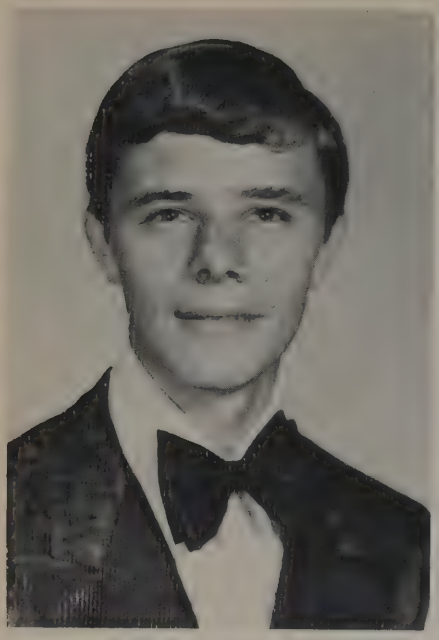
GERALD WAYNE ALEXANDER
"A man should never be ashamed to say he has been in the wrong, which is but saying in other words that he is wiser today than he was yesterday."

CLARA SUE ALLRAN
"Heard melodies are sweet, but those unheard are sweeter; therefore, ye sweet pipes play on."

KAY STARR BAKER
"A sense of humor and a love for other people has gotten me through life this far, and I pray it'll help me the rest of the way."

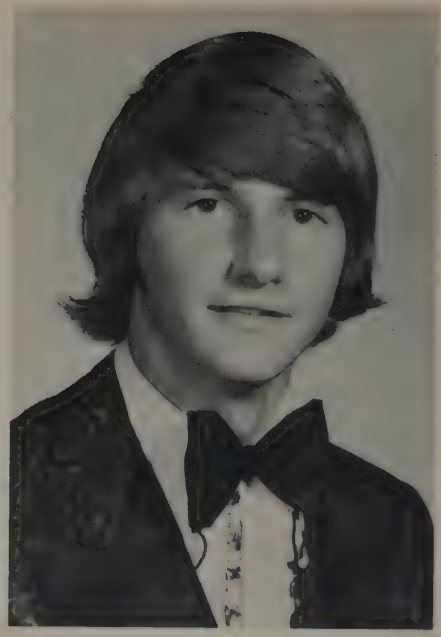
SHEILA LINGERFELT BAKER
"But there's nothing half so sweet in life, as love's young dream."

ALAN BRUCE BARRETT
"Everything I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my beloved parents."



ALLEN DOUTHIT BEAM
"A day for toil,
an hour for sport,
but for a friend
life is too short."

CHRISTOPHER JENNINGS BEAM
"Man's flight through life is sustained by the power of his knowledge."



JAMES STEVEN BEAM
"There are two tragedies in life. One is to lose your heart's desire. The other is to gain it."

RHONDA ANN BEAM
"Sincerity is to speak as we think, to do as we pretend and profess, to perform what we promise, and really be what we would seem and appear to be."

ROBERT JAMES BENSON
"The hardhearted person never truly loves. He engages in a cross utilitarianism which values other people mainly according to their usefulness to him."

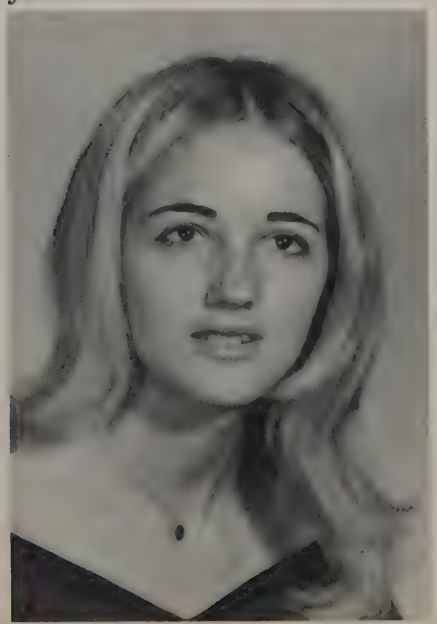
DEBORAH ELENA BLACK
"Bury a sadness so deep that it never shows, for laugh and the world laughs with you; cry and you cry alone."

JANET KATHRYN BOGGS
"The appearance of things changes according to the emotions; and thus we see magic and beauty in them, while the magic and beauty are really in ourselves."

DEBORAH KAY BROWN
"Live for today, for no one promises you a tomorrow."

CAROL ELIZABETH BROWNE
"Without honesty
. . . there is no truth
Without truth
. . . there is no love
Without love
. . . there is nothing."

JUDITH EVELYN BROWNE
"Happiness is a butterfly, which when pursued, is always beyond our grasp, but which if you will sit down quietly, may alight upon you."



MARY JANE BROWNE
"Happy is the person that has something to look backward on with pride, and something to look forward to with hope."

STEVE WILLIAM BUMGARDNER
"Love is the greatest thing that God can give us. It is the greatest thing we can give to God, for it will also give ourselves, and carry with it all that is ours."

Seniors

CYNTHIA ANNETTA CARPENTER
"The truest view of life has always seemed to me to be that which shows that we are here not to enjoy, but to learn."

DAVID WAYNE CARPENTER
"A little short, a little shy, but nonetheless, a mighty guy."

TERESA LOUISE CHAMPION
"The motto of chivalry is the motto of wisdom; serve all but love only one!"

ROSALIND KAY CLINTON
"God made us to be originals. Why stoop to be a copy?"

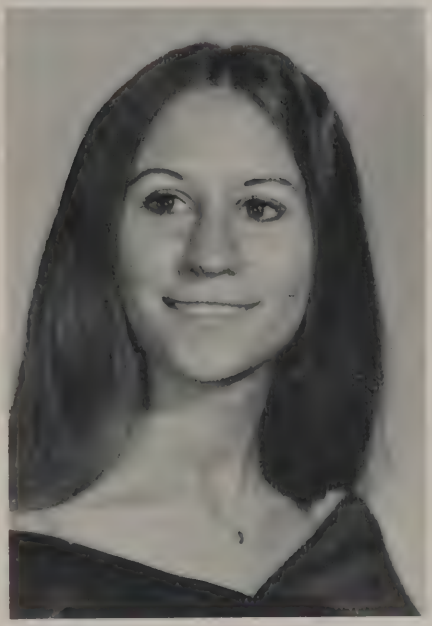
ALFREDA ANITA CLOUDE
"God only gave us one life to live, one love to give. Live your life only for the one you love."

JACK CEIL CORRY
"No man can enjoy life until he himself has seen the glories of life, and no man really knows another."

Seniors

DAVID CRANE
"When you've seen beyond yourself, then you may find peace of mind is waiting there, and the time will come when you see we're all one and life flows on within you and without you."

VICKI ELIZABETH CRONAN
"If every man would be a poet, Love would reign; Beauty would take place; Man and Nature would harmonize."



DALE STEVEN DALTON
"True love's the gift which God has given to man alone beneath the heaven."

ROBERT DEAN DAVES
"Fill my hour, ye gods, so that I may not say, whilst I have done this 'Behold also, an hour of my life is gone,' — but rather I lived an hour."

DONNA KAY DAVIS
"Hope but don't expect. Blessed are those who expect nothing for they shall never be disappointed."

CHARLES RAY DELLINGER, JR.
"Some men see things as they are and say why; I dream of things that never were and say why not."

Seniors

CAMERON RUSTY EAKER
"The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands during challenge and controversy."

DEBRA KAYE EAKER
"All I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my beloved parents, whom I love dearly."

JAMES MITCHELL EAKER
"For nobody can discover the world for anybody else. It is only after we have discovered it for ourselves that it becomes a common ground and a common bond, and we cease to be alone."

JESSIE DEAN EAKER
"Some men see things as they are and ask why; I dream of things that never were and ask why not."

KAREN JEAN EARLS
"A man travels the world over in search of what he needs, and returns home to find it."

MELINDA ANN FAIRES
"In my hours of darkness there is still a light that shines on me. Shine on till tomorrow — Let it be."

BARBARA ETTA FANNIN
"A man is never so tall as when he kneels before God."

AGATHINE DELL FARLEY
"To love one who loves you, to admire one who admires you, in a word, to be the idol of one's idol, is exceeding the limit of him and joy; it is stealing fire from heaven."

SARAH ELAINE FERGUSON
"A day for toil, an hour for sport, but for a friend life is too short."

MARTHA ANGELYNN FISHER

VICKIE ANNETTE GOODSON

PAULA KAY HALLMAN
"The most precious and beautiful things in the world cannot be seen nor touched but are felt in the heart."

ROBERT EUGENT HARRIS
"Life consists not in holding good cards, but in playing well those you do hold."

ROBERT COLON HAYES, JR.
"Who would begin upon the journey of life if compelled to begin at the end?"

GARY HAYNES
"The most precious of all my possessions is a wise and loyal friend."

DANNY CARL HESTER
"The only gracious way to accept an insult is to ignore it; if you can't ignore it, if you can't top it, laugh at it; if you can't laugh at it, it's probably deserved."

JUDY HESTER
"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

GEORGETTE HILLYER
"Into each life a little rain must fall. Someone's precious love, a love you never knew, will always remain in your heart."

GLORIA DAPHINE HOPE
"If we put our problems in God's hand, there is nothing we need understand — it is enough to just believe that what we need we will receive."

WILLIAM CURTIS HOVIS
"I am persuaded that when a man smiles — but much more so when he laughs — it adds something to this fragment of life."

SHELIA LEE HOWELL
"So who's got the key to Pandora's black box? How can we keep our ship off the rocks? Speak out against all injustice and wrong. Keep up the faith and pass it along."

VICKIE ELIZABETH HOYLE
"Do not live for the past, but learn from it and prepare for the future."

WANDA WATERS HUFFSTETLER

WILLIAM GILES HUNTER
"We must all hang together, or assuredly we shall all hang separately."

LEAH PAULINE HUSKINS
"To most people, success in life is to have lots of money; but to me success is to have a happy family and a Christian way of life."

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Each of us has heard the phrase by Thomas Wolfe, "You can't go home again." This statement holds much truth for our years at C.H.S. Though we can't relive years gone by, we can occasionally glance back at the memories Cherryville High School brought about.

In August of 1971, our class of 170 sophomores assembled in [illegible] auditorium, embarking on the long, winding trail ahead of us. With the new and different surroundings at C.H.S. we chose only the best students for class officers. Therefore we elected Gerald Alexander, president; Ted Poston, vice-president; Tommy Summer, secretary; and Mary Upchurch, treasurer. Steve Beam was chosen by the entire student body as treasurer of the Student Council. Homecoming 1971 brought excitement and anticipation to our class. Renee [illegible]arns, a former class member, represented us as our sophomore sponsor. In January, the junior class picked eight sophomores to serve at the Junior-Senior Prom which was to be held in May. They were Pam Summer, Mickey Ray, Leslie Terres, Susie Parker, Curtis Hoyle, Mitch Eaker, Steve Beam, and Clifton Parker. During the Awards Day Program in May, Tommy Summer was given the award for "Most Outstanding Sophomore Football Player." By the end of the school year, C.H.S. felt like our new home.

Our junior year was one of diligent work and exciting times. This year required capable leaders. They were Clifton Parker, president; Rusty Eaker, vice-president; Debbie McClure, secretary; and Alan Sipe, treasurer. Tommy Summer led the class in the magazine sale in September of 1972. The astounding total sales was $10,581.75. We had surpassed the amount of $9,062.66 set by the class of 1973. The Junior Class Sponsor for Homecoming, 1972 was Mary Upchurch. With the ending of football season came the announcement of Tommy Summer and Chuck Dellinger making the All-Conference Team. In early December, thirteen of our most outstanding class members were inducted into the National Honor Society. Soon after mid-term Junior Marshals for the graduation exercises were announced. Rhonda Beam was named chief. Following in order of rank were [illegible] Boggs, Debbie McClure, Terresa Mayhue, Paula Hallman, Debbie Sellers, Chris Beam, Doug Agner, Sheila [illegible]ms, Chris Wallace, Mickey Ray, Sid Stroupe, Chris Tweed, and Carol Browne. The long-awaited class rings arrived in March, and plans for our Junior-Senior prom were well underway. "Gone With the Wind" was the selected theme. It was held May 5, 1973. Awards Day, 1973, brought honors to our class. Chosen as Boy and Girl Stators were Doug Agner, Tommy Summer, Janet Boggs, and Jan Harden Froneberger. Carol Browne and Floy Smith were selected as summer trainees at Gaston Memorial Hospital. Calvin Hastings attended the T.V. and Radio [illegible] at U.N.C. — Chapel Hill. The hardest two miles of our journey were quickly over.

One hundred and thirty-eight rather anxious seniors returned to Cherryville High in August, 1973. Little did we realize [illegible]e began that year that it would be the last mile of our journey. We needed responsible leaders and chose [illegible]ker, president; Chris Wallace, vice-president; Martha Fisher, secretary; and Alan Sipe, treasurer. [illegible]and Terresa Mayhue co-edited the yearbook, Chenoca, while Sid Stroupe and Vicki Croan [illegible] newspaper, Cherry Leaves. Our last homecoming was very special to us. Susie Parker was [illegible]ning Queen with Gloria Hope, Mary Upchurch, Debbie Eaker, and Leslie Terres as [illegible] Pam Summer represented our class as sponsor. Tommy Summer broke the C.H.S. record for total offensive yardage in football. Optimist Youth Awards were presented to Calvin Hastings and Gloria Hope for their fine records in the school and community. In January, 1974, 29 honor students were announced with [illegible] as valedictorian and Janet Boggs as salutatorian. Calvin Hastings served as Teen Correspondent for The Shelby Daily Star and Debbie Eaker was selected by the faculty as the DAR Good Citizen.

We shall never enter the halls of Cherryville Senior High School as students again. All we have left are memories, and may they ever live in our hearts throughout the future.

Dwight Harrelson Memorial Lodge
Knights of Pythias

A LEADER

The Order of Knights of Pythias was the first fraternal order to receive a charter from the United States Government under a special act of Congress.

It was the first to require that the flag of the country should be displayed and saluted in our castle halls.

It was the first to start to raise a fund for our soldiers and their dependents in the great World War.

It was the first to purchase Liberty Bonds.

It was the first to open its doors to boys eighteen years of age.

It was the first fraternal order to say that its ritual could be printed only in the English language.

The Order of Knights of Pythias

OFFICIAL DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES

Pythian knighthood had its conception in the exemplification of the life test of true friendship existing between Damon and Pythias.

Friendship, or mutual confidence, being the strongest bond of union between man and man, and only existing where honor has an abiding place, is adopted as a foundation principle.

As the ideal knight of olden time was the personification of all the higher and nobler attributes of man's nature, the candidite for knighthood had to prove himself worthy of acceptance by those who valued friendship, bravery, honor, justice and loyalty.

The Order of Knights of Pythias—founded in Friendship, Charity and Benevolence, which it proclaims as its cardinal principles—strives to gather into one mighty fraternity worthy men who appreciate the true meaning of friendship; who are cautious in word and act; who love truth; who are brave in defending right; whose honor is untarnished; whose sense of justice will prevent, to the best of their ability, a personal act or word injurious to the worthy; whose loyalty to principle, to family, to friends, to their country and to the constituted authority under which they enjoy citizenship is undoubted; and who, at all times, are prepared to do unto others as they would that others should do unto them.

We Believe:
That Faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
That the economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of laws rather than of men;
That earth's great treasure lies in human personality;
And that service to humanity is the best work of life.
